ROUND DANCE SONGS OF TAOS PUEBLO

Round dance is a social dance which has long been popular among many Plains tribes as well as at Taos Pueblo. It has also become popular among numerous intertribal clubs in cities where many Indians have relocated. Taos Pueblo is unique in that for more than a century its singers and composers have been successfully performing and composing in this Plains musical form in addition to their own Pueblo forms. Today Taos is widely recognized as a center for excellent round dance singing and composition. In these recordings, the goal was to present Taos round dance singing as it would be sung at an actual dance.

THE CODY FAMILY

The Navajo Shoe Game is played during the night. It is mostly played for creation, but may be performed as a chanting ceremony. It is played only during the winter, and sometimes into late spring. The first shoe game song was played by the day and night animals to decide if there should be only a day or night. Neither side won, therefore there is night and day. ALL IS MADE BEAUTIFUL

Meet Oh Shinnah Fast Wolf, the internationally renowned Warrior Woman and elder of the Apache People. Long before the Green movement, Native Americans knew how to care for Mother Earth and her inhabitants. In this entertaining and educational film, Oh Shinnah demonstrates powerful yet easy-to-follow practices such as smudging, feathering, and food blessing. These ancient rituals will help you to: reduce stress and anxiety in your life, center yourself and connect to those around you, and take charge and protect this planet for many generations to come. Oh Shinnah also reveals what she considers her most important work today: The Journey of the Waters, a sacred pilgrimage following the Apache trail of purification and transformation. The documentary also features Nuclear Scientist and Astrophysicist Dr. Elizabeth Rauscher, who validates multiple Native traditions from the scientific point of view. 65 minutes. Not rated.

SMALL BOY SINGERS

Situated in the Rocky Mountains of Alberta, Canada, Smallboy Camp is a small group of Ne Wi Yow (Cree) who live and follow the direction of the Natural Law. For 30 years, the Smallboy Camp has utilized the vision and guidance of Lazarus Roan, and the wisdom and guidance of Chief Robert Smallboy. Smallboy Camp elders foresaw the integration of the Whiteman's culture and grievances that would follow, so this small band of Ne Wi Yow moved with their children to the wilderness in order to preserve their ceremonies and language. The songs on this recording are authentic and are recorded and presented for your listening and dancing pleasure.

These five shows comprise a culinary celebration of America's bounty, combining Native American history and culture with delicious, healthy recipes inspired by indigenous foods. Each episode is approximately 30 minutes in length.

- EPISODE 1: GULF COAST ORIGINALS

Over 6000 years before the Acadian French (today's Cajuns) arrived in Louisiana, there were Native peoples living and fishing in Louisiana's bayou country. An historical tour of this Gulf Coast region provides a lesson about Native influences on Cajun cooking. Loretta cooks Sassafras Shrimp Gumbo and Spicy Alligator Sauce Piquant.

VMV 1304D DVD $24.95

When thinking of the cuisine of the southwest, most people think Mexican food. But Native foods in their traditional form are an exciting way of expressing this beautiful and rugged region of the country. During a visit with the Tohono O'odham Tribe of Arizona, Loretta joins the tribe for their annual 3-day harvest of Saguaro Cactus fruit. Mildred Manuel teaches Loretta to prepare Wild Spinach with Cholla Buds and Chiltepine Peppers, Tapary Beans with Ribs, Ash Bread (slow-cooked in the ashes of a mesquite fire), and sweet, refreshing Mesquite juice.

- EPISODE 3: RETURN OF THE BUFFALO

There is a movement among Tribes to bring the buffalo back to the Great Plains in order to promote cultural enhancement, spiritual revitalization, ecological restoration, and economic development. Loretta travels to the buffalo range of Fred Dubray on the Cheyenne River Sioux Reservation in South Dakota to learn more. Wasna (Sun-Dried Bison with Chochecherries), Wojape (Chochecherry Soup) and Grilled Bison Tenderloin with a Sage-Chochecherry Jus are on the menu for this exciting show.

VMV 1306D DVD $24.95

- EPISODE 4: BOUNTY OF THE RIVER'S EDGE

The people of the Yurok Tribe live off the bounty of the Pacific Coast on the banks of California's Klamath River, harvesting salmon, shellfish, seaweed and edible wild greens along with acorns which are ground and cooked in tightly woven handmade baskets. Loretta joins her Yurok friends for a feast of alderwood-smoked salmon, dried sirfish and eels along with an amazing sturgeon egg bread.

Wild rice, or manoomin, is still harvested the traditional way by the Anishanabe, or Ojibwe people of the Great Lakes Region. Ricers and their families take canoes in the rice fields and hand harvest the rice. After participating in the rice harvest, Loretta helps to prepare Winona LaDuke's favorite wild rice and maple syrup cake which accompanies a lakeside first rice feast of buffalo, wild rice and cranberry stuffed acorn squash, buffalo stew and beautiful ruby red swamp tea.
